Dear Nina,

Thank you for helping us shape an exciting future for Canada defined by wise land and water stewardship, sustainable food systems, clean energy, and caring communities. With your help, MakeWay is:

- revitalizing local food systems in northern Manitoba, where food insecurity is eight times the national average;
- improving and expanding work opportunities for Vancouver binners—informal recyclable collectors who divert thousands of bottles and cans from the landfill each year; and,
- partnering with indigenous youth in Ontario to make their community-focused projects a reality.

Your donation today helps to make all this, and more, possible.

Your generous support will be acknowledged as Nina Bindel in MakeWay's donor publications. If you would like this listing changed, please contact donations@makeway.org.

Thank you again for supporting us. Together, we can protect what makes us proud to be Canadian—a healthy environment, thriving communities, and a sustainable future for generations to come.

Sincerely,
